Fisch is a spoken-word event organized and hosted by the Deutscher Studenten Club that celebrates the aesthetic uniqueness that your native tongue brings to the foreign languages you speak—quirks, accents, and all. Germans reciting in Spanish, US Americans singing in Russian, Turks reading in French, all conspiring to enjoy and embrace the aesthetic experience of blended languages. Anyone is welcome to attend and/or participate. Participants are asked to choose and perform a text, song, etc. in any learned, non-native language. If you are interested in performing as a part of the event, please contact Emily Poole, DSC Vice President at egpoole@email.arizona.edu
