

2019 INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON MEDIEVAL AND EARLY MODERN CULTURE

Fantasy and Imagination in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age

This symposium will explore projections, dreams, illusions, monsters and monstrosity, a fundamental aspect of human culture in the Pre-Modern Era. Fantasy and imagination, then as now, are both certainly of central importance to human existence.

MAY 2 – 5 FOR SCHEDULE INFORMATION VISIT:
aclassen.faculty.arizona.edu

SPONSORED BY

College of Humanities | German Studies | Spanish and Portuguese
French and Italian | Religious Studies & Classics
Roshan Graduate Interdisciplinary Program in Persian & Iranian Studies

Organizer and Chair: Dr. Albrecht Classen | 520-621-1395 | aclassen@email.arizona.edu